Trip Info
Join Outdoor Adventures for a downhill skiing adventure at the Wolf Creek Ski Area. Wolf Creek is located in the San Juan Mountains of southern Colorado and is a high alpine ski resort - 10,300 feet at the base and 11,900 feet at the summit. It is widely known for its abundant snowfall; when all of Colorado is dry or snow-deprived, Wolf Creek manages to have several feet of snow waiting to be skied or boarded on. All skill levels are welcome and professional lessons are available.
