NEW Rec Sports Website Launched

By Jon Olson

Make sure to check out the new and improved recsports.tamu.edu. There are many new features to take note of, including new sport clubs pages. There are new mini-bios for each of the sport clubs, each containing information about the club and their accomplishments, as well as links to the club websites. So, those of you that haven’t updated your websites in a while, now is a good time to do so.
