About Intramural Sports

Do you love sports? Looking for a job that's more than sitting behind an office desk? Intramural Sports is hiring!

As an Intramural Official, you will make new friends, work flexible hours (evenings only), earn money, and maybe most importantly, you almost never have to work a Friday or Saturday. Each year, the intramural department hires over 200 student officials. Officials in each sport go through a paid training program. Training occurs over a two week period before play begins and includes classroom sessions along with on-site clinics. In the classroom, sports rules and officiating techniques are discussed and reviewed. The clinics consist of veteran officials demonstrating proper court/field coverage and scrimmage games.

An Intramural Official is responsible for proper game administration of intramural contests according to the rules of the sport and intramural policies and procedures. Typical responsibilities include enforcement of appropriate rules and policies, inventory of equipment, evaluation of self and co-officials, verification of participant eligibility, and enforcement of sportsmanship during intramural contests.

Work Hours/Anticipated Schedule

Intramural officials typically work between 6-15 hours a week, with the opportunity for more work by picking up additional shifts or another sport. Working for intramural sports is based on your schedule, and we work around your class schedule and other weekly requirements.

Normal hours that you can be scheduled to work are Sunday 3:30-midnight and Monday through Thursday 5:30-midnight.

Hiring Process

Intramural sports does not accept applications due to the large number of officials we must hire. In order to be considered for this position, interested applicants MUST attend one of the following informational sessions. If you are interested in working multiple sports, please attend EACH info session. Please bring your friends!!!

Fall 2020 Orientations
